Paying your benefit

Who do you want us to pay your Housing Benefit to? You Your landlord

Are you behind with your rent? No Yes If 'Yes', how many weeks are you behind by?

We must see original proof of your rent and tenancy before we can decide how much benefit you can get. This should be your original tenancy agreement or letters from your landlord or agent. We also need to see original proof that you have been paying your rent, such as a rent book or receipts.

Sharing information with your landlord

Sometimes, sharing information with your landlord helps us deal with your claim more quickly and reduces the risk of you falling behind with your rent because of your claim being delayed. We would only share information with your landlord if you:

- are a local-authority tenant; or
- have agreed that we can pay your Housing Benefit straight to your landlord.

But in either case, under the Data Protection Act, we need your permission to share information. If you give us permission, we would be able to tell your landlord:

- whether or not you had claimed or renewed your claim for Housing Benefit and, if so, whether or not we have made a decision on your claim; and
- if we need more information to make a decision on your claim and, if so, what information this is.

There may be other information about your claim that we need to check with your landlord, such as the date your tenancy started, before we can make a decision on your claim. If this is the case, we have to ask your landlord if you have not given us permission to discuss your claim with them. But unless you have given us permission by signing this form, we will not discuss anything else with your landlord.

We will not give your landlord any information about:

- your personal or household circumstances; or
- your financial circumstances.

If you do not give us permission to discuss your claim with your landlord, it will not affect your claim. If you give us permission but then change your mind, we will follow your wishes. Just contact us and let us know.

Housing Benefit does not cover the cost of support charges but if you are entitled to Housing Benefit, you will get help from your Supporting People Partnership Team. So they can help you, they will need information about your entitlement to Housing Benefit. If you want us to, we can give them this information so that they do not have to ask you for it but we need your permission to do this. If you would like us to pass on this information, please read and sign the declaration below. The information we will pass on is your full name and address, National Insurance number and the dates your entitlement to Housing Benefit starts and ends. The Supporting People Partnership Team will use this information to assess how much they can pay towards the cost of your support services. Your support provider will have given you more information about the Supporting People Partnership Team and what they do.

We can only backdate benefit for up to 52 weeks from the date we get your claim.

Part 18 About paying your Housing Benefit, Council Tax Benefit or both

Housing Benefit if you are a council tenant

If you are a council tenant, we will pay any Housing Benefit into your rent account. This means that you will pay no rent, or a reduced amount each week. Once we have told you how much benefit you have been awarded, you can have your rent card amended by the Rents Section at Sherwood Lodge.
